ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

My name is Marta Papa (aka, The Divorce Whisperer), and I have been a Family Law Attorney and Mediator for 35 years. I've helped more than 11,000 couples divorce using litigation and more than 4,000 couples mediate their divorces. In addition to my legal background, I hold a postgraduate degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from the prestigious Menninger Institute. I am the author of "7 Secrets from the Divorce Whisperer: How to Save Yourself, Your Money and Your Children During Divorce".

After more than three decades of experience in family law, I am more convinced than ever that mediation is the healthiest way for couples to resolve their divorces, and that it creates the best possible outcomes for both parties and, most importantly, their children. Sharing this important skill with qualified mental health professionals and lawyers has become my passion.

I am determined to leave the field of family law better than I found it, and I want my legacy to be training as many talented, qualified, compassionate mediators as possible to help families approach conflict in a better way.
